

Amanda Morell is a recent graduate of the University of Baltimore, where she received her bachelor's degree in Business Administration with a specialization in Marketing. She has always had a love of dance. As a child and young adult she studied ballet, tap, jazz and modern dance at the Let's Dance Studio in Towson, Maryland. The performing art have been ever present in her life as she attended The Baltimore School for the Arts for music performance, where she studied to play the flute under Sara Nichols. Her dance training continued when she went away to university. She studied the modern dance techniques of Martha Graham and Ruth St. Denis during her time attending Ohio Wesleyan University. Upon returning to Baltimore, Amanda wanted to pursue a career in Arts Development. She began working at BSD with Miss Amy in June of 2014 as the Marketing and Development intern at BSD.
